

STAYING CONNECTED WITH NT4CM – NOVEMBER 2008

Who We Are

National Training for Counselors and Mentors (NT4CM) is a collaboration that provides free training and support for counselors and mentors who assist students and their families in preparing financially for college. As part of our ongoing support, from August to May, we will e-mail you reminders and resources relevant to the student financial aid lifecycle.

To find out more about NT4CM in your state, visit www.fsa4counselors.ed.gov/NT4CM.

This Month's Features

- FAFSA4caster is an online tool that helps students and parents determine their current eligibility for federal student aid. Counselors should encourage students to check out www.fafsa4caster.ed.gov to learn how much aid they would receive if they applied today.
- MyFSA is an online account that provides students with access to college and scholarship searches, career and self-assessment tools, and other valuable resources regarding college and financial aid. Students can set up MyFSA accounts by visiting www.studentaid.ed.gov and clicking on "MyFSA." To learn how to use and take advantage of MyFSA's various functions, students can click on "Introduction to MyFSA."
